SAFETY PRODUCTS LINE CARD

Today's work environment is dynamic whether we're talking about a machinist, boilermaker, electrician, welder or technician. Horizon Solutions knows how important it is to have the right safety gear. You can save money and reduce injuries through prevention and proper safety product selection and use. Having the right safety products and training services, equipment, and supplies is vital to all employees to ensure their health and safety.

We carry a wide selection of safety products, supplies, and personal protective equipment (PPE). We have partnered with the most respected safety brands to deliver best-in-class safety, quality and performance. Being your safety source means more than just offering you a full line of safety products — it also means we will provide you with the knowledge and tools to select the right product, for the right application.

Partner with Horizon Solutions to discover new ways to lead your workers to safety. Contact a Horizon Solutions Safety Specialist today \(800\) 724-4750.
